ICA – The Convention for the Idaho Counseling Association will be held on Thursday and Friday of this week at the Nampa Civic Center and the Board is scheduled to meet with the members for a question and answer period on Friday from 9 to 10:30a.m.

BUREAU STAFF

John Kersey reported 14 new complaints for this year, 12 of the complaints are open and under investigation.

Budd Hetrick introduced Thomas E. Limbaugh to the Board.

Budd Hetrick distributed a board member manual to Jun Shiosaki and updated sections to the other Board members.

Budd Hetrick distributed a proposed contract between the Board and the Bureau for the Board to review. Mr. Hetrick asked that adoption of the contract be considered by conference call before the first of the year.

Budd Hetrick reported the financial statement will be distributed to the Board when it has been completed.

Roger Hales reported that he is working on the definition of faith based counseling and the sexual intimacies concerns. Roger Hales is to contact Loryn Lesser at AASCB, ACA and Tom Clausen at NBCC for any clarification they may have on these items.

Donetta Foss met with the Board with proposals for Continuing Education sent in from:

Marilove Challenger – An Expressive Arts Adventure
SANE Solutions
Bill Hanlon
North Idaho treatment Associates, Inc.

Dawna Jackson moved to approve all of the above submissions for Continuing Education credits. Jun Shiosaki seconded the motion, motion carried.

Kirsten Wallace presented the Board with three complaints:

COU.P4.03.98.007 - Dr. Davis moved to approve a stipulated reprimand, with $150 fine and six hours of continuing education in confidentiality and Ethics. Ms. Jackson seconded and the motion carried.

COU.P4.03.98.001

COU.P4.03.99.002

Dawna Jackson moved to accept the recommendations of Kirsten Wallace for all three complaints. Jun Shiosaki seconded the motion, motion carried.

Daniel Weigel met with the Board by conference call to request a Licensed Professional Counselor – Private Practice license based upon his Colorado license issued in March 1999. Dawna Jackson moved to deny the LPCP license until Mr. Weigel can document 2,000 hours of direct client contact with 2 years of licensure in Idaho. Jun Shiosaki seconded the motion, vote: three in favor, one against, motion carried.

The meeting recessed at 3:15 to reconvene at 10a.m. on October 6, 1999.

OCTOBER 6, 1999

Dr. Craig called the meeting to order at 10a.m. with Board members Richard Craig, Chairman, Enid Davis, Dawna Jackson, and Jun Shiosaki present.
Bureau staff in attendance: Roger Hales, Budd Hetrick and Janice Wiedrick.

LPCP LICENSURE

The following were approved for the LPCP license upon receipt of the $75 original license fee:

Anita Ann Collier, Linda McGuire and Huberta Phipps.

BOARD BUSINESS FILE

Valez Bird requested review of the supervision hours provided by a non-licensed supervisor. Dawna Jackson, moved to accept the hours of supervision for Ms. Bird, Dr. Davis seconded the motion, motion carried unanimously.

AREAS TO BE CONSIDERED FOR FUTURE LAW/RULE CHANGES:

1. Redefine to clarify scope of practice
2. Specialty licensure
3. Multiple areas of expertise
4. Reword the paragraph about supervision in the Rules
5. One-on-one, face-to-face supervision (Telecommunications)
6. Direct Client Contact
7. Faith-Based Counseling
8. People without the 1,000 hours of supervised experience – where do they gain the 1,000 hours. Possible Counselor-in-Training rules.

VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SPECIALTY LICENSURE

Dr. Jerry Fischer and Mary Barros met with the Board to discuss Vocational Rehabilitation Counseling licensure. Discussion was held concerning the CRC examination, which has been shown to be equivalent to the NBCC Examination.

Discussion was also held concerning supervision as provided by a Certified Rehabilitation Counselor instead of a Licensed Professional Counselor.

The Board was advised that Rehabilitation Counselors would prefer LPC licensure instead of a specialty license.

To add the requirements for Rehabilitation Counseling, Roger Hales will research what will be required and report at the next meeting on February 1-2, 2000.

Having no further business before them, the meeting adjourned at 3:50p.m.
